CACI ACQUIRES TELECOMMUNICATIONS SPECIALIST INVOCOM

New acquisition will enhance CACI's offerings

CACI Ltd., a leading provider of information systems and marketing solutions in the UK, today announces the acquisition of Invocom Ltd.

Invocom is a professional services business that designs and delivers networks and operations and business support systems to telecommunications service providers offering carrier, mobile, broadband and corporate services.

CACI have been delivering integrated technical solutions to the telecommunications industry for more than 20 years. Working in partnership with some of the world's leading software vendors, including Cramer, MetaSolv, Oracle and Business Objects, CACI have developed a range of operational support systems to meet the specific challenges faced by their clients.

Invocom will merge with the telecommunications group at CACI with Invocom's Managing Director, Eric Brown, heading up the combined business.

Invocom's Eric Brown, said: "CACI and Invocom have complementary skills and experience that will enable us to build upon our service offerings. The combined organisation will be well positioned to respond to the needs of our customers in a continuously changing market. We are looking forward to the opportunities this partnership will create."

Greg Bradford, Chief Executive of CACI Ltd, commented: "Invocom has a well established reputation and proven track record in the telecommunications industry. This is an exciting acquisition as it strengthens our telecommunications skills and capabilities and provides us greater critical mass from which to grow."
